SLIGO MILLS CLOSE
FOR IMPROVEMENTS.*Two New Furnaces Will Be Erected and Plant Will Be Made First Class.*MUNSON'S IDEAS SUCCESSFUL*Improvements That Have Been Made At The Mills Have Been So Successful That More Will Be Made During The Dull Period—Good Prospects.

The mills of the Sligo & Iron Steel Company at Davidson will close this week for an indefinite period, during which time extensive improvements will be carried on under the direction of James C. Munson. During the past year many improvements have been made at the plant, and these have proved so successful that further and more important improvements are now contemplated.

In taking charge of the mills, some time ago, Mr. Munson proposed many changes in the machinery, and these changes did not include all that Mr. Munson had in view at that time, but were made with a view to placing Sligo in the front ranks of the iron and steel business. Electricity in the propelling of the machinery, the installation of a large magnet and many labor saving devices were installed.

With these partial improvements made and in shape to prove their value the mills were started some months ago and the value of the improvements easily demonstrated by the work performed under the improved conditions. In order to carry out further ideas of economy in operation and also increased output the mills close again this week. The improvements to be made are general, but in particular there will be two furnaces added to run the bar mill. The new furnaces for the guide mill have proved so satisfactory that the present improvements are to be extended.

It is believed by all that when the contemplated improvements are made that Sligo will stand out prominently in the iron and steel manufacturing world, as its wide reputation already attests. The improvements to be made will more than double the capacity of the mills, and greatly lessen the cost of production. The production of high grade materials is probably that several months will be required to make the changes, but the company is assured of a continuous run after that time.

BROWN ARRIVED AT HARRISBURG TOO LATE*Advised That There Are So Many Bills
Ahead of His That It Is Useless to Introduce It.

Tax collector George B. Brown returned yesterday afternoon from Harrisburg where he went to present a bill before the Legislature to recover $6654. This is a most responsible position, he says, and Kephart fills it with grace and dignity. The offices of the Chief Clerk are the headquarters of the State Senators, who drop in at frequent intervals to have a friendly chat among themselves and with the Fayette countess.

A. A. Straub and others who went down to attend the hearing over the proposed revision of the mining laws, returned with Mr. Brown. H. M. Kephart is also here over Sunday.

GET AN OLD BILL

Company Discovers That Connellville Owes Them Since 1902.

The borough purchased a relief valve from the Larkin Manufacturing Company in 1902 and the bill has just been presented. Councilman William McCormick of the Public Safety Committee is investigating the matter. The company said they discovered the bill was unpaid while their books were being audited. The amount in question is $50.

May Locate in West.

Robert J. Fink, barge-master on the Cumberland and Connellville Accommodation, has secured a lease of absence for six months and has gone to California and Nevada. Mr. Fink has a position offered him with the Tonopah & Goldfield railroad, and while on his trip west he will look into the offer and may accept it and move his family to Nevada.

POLICE THINK BRIDE
WROTE LETTERS HERSELF*They Entertain Strange Suspicion
Concerning Mysterious Crime in Vincennes, Ind.

United Press Telegram. VINCENNES, Ind., March 25.—A strange theory is entertained by the police today in explanation of the mysterious death of Mrs. Jessie Lee Culbertson. Mrs. Culbertson was a victim of a strange madness, they say, that led her to write to herself threatening letters of tragic warning she received during the week before she was found dying of carbolic acid poisoning, bound and gagged in the shed back of the home of her husband's parents, with whom the couple lived. Police Chief Evans thinks Mrs. Culbertson, in addressing the letters, imitated the handwriting of the old sweetheart of her husband, by whom they were ostensibly written. This old sweetheart, according to the police report, has been located in Chicago and rogues are to come to Vincennes to clear her name. The police compared their written letters with the letters known to be in the dead woman's handwriting and with others written by the woman, the bride seemed to think her rival.

They note the handwriting addresses on the warning letters are like that of the old sweetheart but the body of the letters were more like that of the bride herself.

DEMAND $15,000
FOR PITTSBURG LAD*Lawrence Gibson of Pittsburgh Has Been Strangely Missing Since Last Night.

United Press Telegram. PITTSBURG, March 25.—Sending a letter in his own handwriting but signed by another asserting he had been kidnapped and demanding $15,000 for his safe return, Lawrence Gibson, 15 years old, is missing from his home here.

The letter was received by his father, Alfred J. Gibson, a bricklayer, last night, and was first looked on as a joke, but since he did not return home today his absence is now viewed more seriously. Gibson placed the matter in the police's hands. Mrs. Gibson is almost distracted over her son's absence.

The lad's parents are in no position to raise the amount demanded as ransom for the safe return of the child. All the wealth they have is invested in a modest brick house in which they live.

EXTRA $10,000,000
IS NOT AVAILABLE*That's What They Say on Capitol Hill
About Appropriation Fund.

United Press Telegram. HARRISBURG, Pa., March 25.—There was a tremendous crossing of swords on Capitol Hill today when officials were asked whether there is anything in the published reports that there will be nearer $50,000,000 than $45,000,000 for appropriations by the Legislature during the coming two years.

Chairman Woodward of the House Appropriations Committee, entered an emphatic denial. At Auditor General Young's Department the statement was made that the Department stood for the estimate furnished the Governor which showed that at the very outside not much over $45,000,000 will be available for appropriations.

BOYLE GOES TO MERCER.His Wife Will Not Make The Trip Until Tomorrow.

PITTSBURG, March 25.—(Special.) J. H. Boyle, one of the abductors of Willie Whitley, has gone back to Mercer county to face his accusers. The woman calling herself his wife did not accompany him.

It is understood she will be transferred tomorrow after the jail is made ready for her reception.

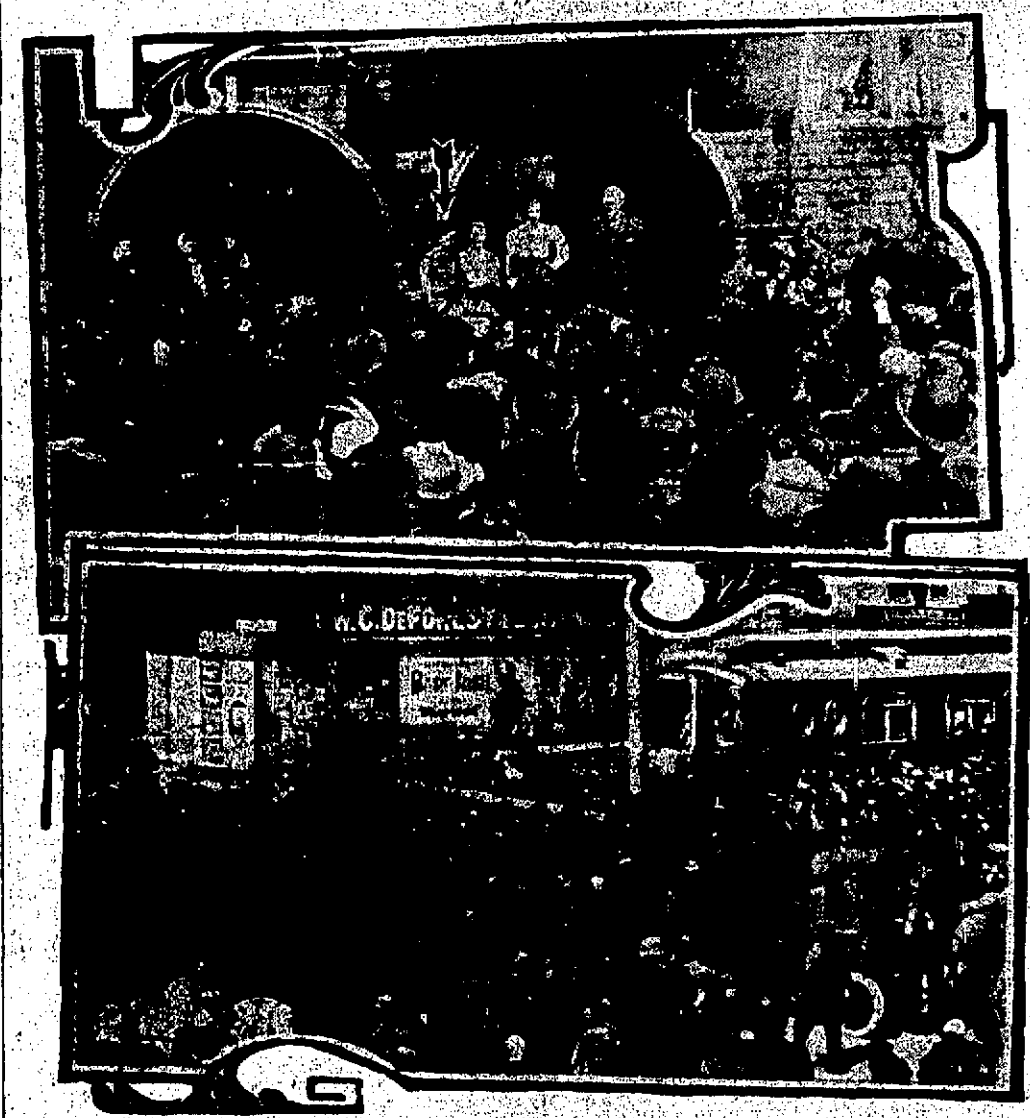

Fire Does Damage.

Cold But Clear.

Following yesterday's snow the weather cleared off this morning but it was still cold. The mercury stood at 23 this morning. Yesterday morning it was 38 and dropped two degrees in the evening.

Fair and Cloudy.

Fair tonight, increasing cloudiness Saturday is the noon weather bulletin.

CROWDS GREETING WILLIE WHITLEY,
KIDNAPED BOY, ON HIS RETURN HOME.*FRICK VETERANS SAY FAREWELLS.*Entertain in Honor of Hugh Coll Soon to Leave.
Connellville.*WILL RESIDE IN MARYLAND.

Mrs. Coll Presented With Very Elaborate Table Linens as a Mark of High Esteem—Guests Made Short Addresses.

As a compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Coll and family who leave soon for Easton, Md., where they have purchased a very pretty country home, the Frick Veterans Association, of which Mr. Coll is a member, gave a very elaborate dinner last evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Coll on West Apple street.

The affair was in the form of a farewell party and was beautifully appointed in every detail. The place cards were very pretty little affairs, adorned in red. The menu was very fine and was served in elegant style. At the conclusion of the dinner in behalf of the Association W. A. Todd presented Mrs. Coll with a very handsome set of linen. Rev. Father John T. Burns accepted the gift in behalf of Mrs. Coll. For many years Mr. Coll has been superintendent of the Trotter Water Company and his many friends will regret to see him and his family leave Connellville.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Coll and daughters, Misses Sara and Katherine, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Coll, E. J. Tormay of Trotter, J. A. Barnhart, W. A. Todd, W. W. Kahner and W. L. Hay of Scottdale, P. J. Locke, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller of Uniontown, John Hensel of Redstone, Morris Piggan of Mt. Pleasant, William Ramsey of Buckeye, James A. Childs of Pleasant Level, Rev. Father J. T. Burns of Connellville and Hugh Coll.

Ahead of the Job.

Spring ploughing has been rushed this week. Most of the farmers are away ahead with their work on account of the open winter.

Streets Dirty.

Many complaints are being made of the dirty streets.

VETERANS GATHER IN
NEW MEETING PLACE*Arrange For the Celebration of Appomattox Day at First Session in Public Building.

The Union Veterans Legion met last evening for the first time in their new room in the public building. The meeting was the regular monthly one and was of a very enthusiastic nature. Plans were completed for the annual celebration of Appomattox Day, Friday, April 9. At 7:30 o'clock a banquet will be held at Frick's hall. A program was made and seconded that Col. Charles Whitley look after the music for the occasion.

A number of impromptu addresses by many of the comrades will follow the banquet. An invitation will be extended to the veterans of the Spanish American war, their wives or sweethearts as well as to the wives of the Civil war veterans. A social invitation is extended to all old soldiers. Heretofore invitations were extended only to the old soldiers. Extensive arrangements are being made by the committee in charge to have this one of the grandest events given by the old soldiers for some time.

H. M. Kerr, Captain E. Dunn and J. R. Baisley were appointed a committee to confer with the committee from the William F. Kerr Post, No. 104, G. A. R., regarding the Memorial Day exercises.

The Ladies Circle to the G. A. R. No. 100, met yesterday afternoon in Odd Fellows hall and arranged to celebrate Appomattox Day Thursday afternoon, April 8, with a very appropriate program.

FIRE COMPANY IS ORGANIZED AT DAWSON*R. D. Henry is Elected President of the Company and Otto Haas is Fire Chief.

DAWSON, March 25.—The Dawson Fire Company met in the City Hall Wednesday night and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: R. D. Henry, President; C. P. Gibbons, Vice President; S. J. Mallinger, Secretary and Treasurer; W. J. Ellis, Captain; Fowler Mong, First Lieutenant; Roy Henry, Second Lieutenant.

Otto Haas had been chosen chief for a term of three years. The Dawson fire ladders have a fine hall and comfortable quarters, and we hope they will enjoy them absolutely and that they will not be compelled to fight any fires very soon.

George D. Browning of Swallow Falls, Md., have purchased the timber on the large tract of land owned by E. S. Tower, Clerk of the Garrett county, Maryland, court, comprising more than 500 acres of virgin forest, the valuable part of which is hardwood. The purchasers are placing a new mill on the tract, about five miles northeast of Oakland, and the output of the mill will be hauled to Oakland for shipment.

CHAMBER HERE
SEEKS LIGHT.*Wants to Be "Shown" Before
Fore Getting Into Traction Tangle.*WALLACE WRITES TO MR. CROW*Wants Copy of Murphy Bill Before It Will Join in War Pittsburgh is Waging Against It—McKee Urges Immediate Action.

The Connellville Chamber of Commerce wants to be "shown" before it breaks into the fight over the traction legislation at Harrisburg. President B. P. Wallace this morning received the following telegram of Secretary Logan McKee of the Pittsburgh Rapid Transit Commission:

Senate Bill 285, now on third reading in the State Senate, giving street railways and steam railroads right to connect tracks and interchange cars will, if made law, deprive all cities and boroughs of power of controlling street railways. Immediate vigorous protest is imperative from all business organizations to prevent passage of the bill. The Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce urges your immediate attention. Telegrams and personal letters to your Representatives are suggested. Immediate protest is necessary to protect the interests of all cities in the State.

Before taking any action in the matter Mr. Wallace has decided to write Senator W. E. Crow for a copy of the bill. At the same time he will write Mr. McKee asking a more thorough explanation of the objections to the proposed legislation.

The Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce is leading the fight on the traction interests and is enlisting the support of every civic organization in the State. Prompt action, they say, is necessary, as the bill comes up for third reading on Monday night.

When word is received from the Wallace letters a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be called to discuss the matter.

Purchase Timber Tract.

George D. Browning of Swallow Falls, Md., have purchased the timber on the large tract of land owned by E. S. Tower, Clerk of the Garrett county, Maryland, court, comprising more than 500 acres of virgin forest, the valuable part of which is hardwood. The purchasers are placing a new mill on the tract, about five miles northeast of Oakland, and the output of the mill will be hauled to Oakland for shipment.

ALIQUIPPA WORK
TO BE CARRIED ON*Jones & Laughlin Float Bonds to the Sum of $15,000,000 to Complete Work.

The Jones & Laughlin Steel Company has sold to the First Trust and Savings Company of Chicago and to Blair & Company of New York an issue of $15,000,000 bonds on the plant of the corporation.

The company has had under advisement for some time the suggestion that an issue of bonds be made to take care of certain improvements which will be made at some time in the future. Owing to the condition of business funds have accumulated in large amounts in the banks of the country, and have been seeking better investment in the better class of long time security. It appeared to be the right time for the Jones & Laughlin Company to provide for its future financial needs, and the bond issue was decided upon.

It was officially stated by the company last night that it did not anticipate any large expenditures for new work at this time, but it desired to be ready when times improve to complete the plans which the company has decided upon.

It is expected that the money derived from the bond issue will be largely devoted to the completion of the Aliquippa plant on the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad. The company has under construction there a large blast furnace plant, and it has been repeatedly stated, although never officially confirmed, that a rail mill will be erected to take up the steel produced at the furnaces. Plans for the plant were completed some time ago and a great deal of work has been done. A town is planned in connection with the mills.

It was reported yesterday that the Jones & Laughlin Company had an extensive program of improvements mapped out and there were intimations that it included much more than the Aliquippa enterprise.

KENDALLS INCREASE
TIMBER HOLDINGS*Purchase 20,000 Acres of Valuable Property in West Virginia—Contracts for Improvements.

The Croft Lumber Company, composed of S. A. Kendall, J. L. Kendall and J. H. Henderson, members of the Kendall Lumber Company, of Pittsburgh; N. U. Bond, of the Dubois & Bond Bros. Lumber Company of Garrett county, Maryland, and J. J. Gibson, of McMillan, lumbermen of Philadelphia, have purchased 20,000 acres of timber and land, including W. Va., extending back a distance of 20 miles, the greater part of which is virgin forest. It consists of white spruce, hemlock and hardwood and is estimated to cut 175,000,000 feet.

They have also within the last few days let the contract for the erection of a double track mill of the latest improved pattern, with a daily capacity of 150,000 feet. They expect to begin operations by August 1.

This will make one of the largest lumber operations in the State. The lumber will be shipped over the Western Maryland railroad, which traverses a part of the timber tract and with the completion of a short branch road the entire tract of timber will be easily accessible to the above named railroad.

N. U. Bond was elected general manager of the Croft Lumber Company at a meeting of the stockholders held at Gretna Saturday of last week.

WOODFORD RESIGNS FROM PITTSBURG COAL CO*Leaves That Company to Engage With Rail and River Coal Co. of Ohio.

Walter R. Woodford, vice president of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, and one of the best known coal operators in the country, has resigned. He severs his connection with the Pittsburgh concern (April 1, to accept the presidency of the Rail and River Coal Company of Ohio, the fourth largest coal company in the country.

Since 1902 Mr. Woodford has been vice president of the Pittsburgh concern. He was general superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, before going to the position he now holds. The likely successor to Mr. Woodford is not known.

The company of which Mr. Woodford will be the chief executive after April 1 is owned by Pittsburgh capitalists. It controls thousands of acres of coal in Ohio. At present the general offices of the company are in Pittsburgh.

MARATHON TO AID BALL TEAM.*Big Athletic Event Planned
Here for Thursday,
April 29.*MARIETTA-STILLWAGON PARK.*Open To Amateurs And Medals Go To Leaders—Many Other Prizes Will Be Offered The Contestants Who Finish.

Connellville is to have a Marathon race. That was decided this morning when preliminary plans were laid by Antonio Bufano and M. B. Pryce, the committee in charge. It will be in the form of a benefit for the baseball team and will be run in the Marietta-Stillwagon park on Thursday, April 29. The championship of Fayette county will be at stake. The event will be open to all amateur athletes who can secure application blanks by writing Antonio Bufano.

The distance will be something over 12 miles, or exactly half the regular Marathon course. The quarter-mile track will be constructed around the park and the entire distance will be run on the track.

The principal prizes will be three medals for the first men who cross the line. The first prize will be a gold medal, the second of silver and the third of bronze. There will be many other prizes for the contestants who enter and every man who finishes will receive something for his trouble.

Efforts will be made to have entrants from all sections of the county and the Connellville aspirants will have to go a few to win from the field. The Y. M. C. A. cross country runners should be formidable contestants as they have experience in distance events. There are other amateur runners of ability in this section. The winner of the Uniontown Marathon will be expected to compete.

Full details of the plan have not been worked out and are to be announced later. There will be a meeting of the local baseball association this evening at which time the project will be submitted for approval. It is believed a good sum can be realized for the ball team in this manner.

REGISTER AND RECORDER
SCHROYER SELLS BUSINESS*After 20 Years In Mercantile Trade He Transfers It To William Seachrist.

After conducting his hardware establishment for 20 years, the longest continuous record for Dawson, Borough, Register and Recorder Charles C. Schroyer has disposed of it to William A. Seachrist, who takes immediate possession.

Mr. Schroyer was reluctant to quit the business, he has actively followed since 1880, but it was necessary for him to do so. He literally grew up with the thriving borough down the Yough and was always interested in its welfare and progress. He served 15 years as a notary public and, resigned only when elected Register and Recorder. He has also been a Councilman for 20 years, a record every Dawson citizen envies but is proud of.

LAST CASE UP
FOR TRIAL TODAY*Thirty-Eight Cases Come Up for Trial
During Week and 18 Were Continued.

UNIONTOWN, March 25.—The week of civil court came to an end today with the trial of the last case on the list. During the week 38 cases came to trial and were disposed of as follows: verdicts for plaintiff, 5; settled, 5; judgment entered for plaintiff, 4; for defendant, 2; compulsory non-suits, 2; voluntary non-suits, 2; withdrawn, 2; continued, 18.

The last case for trial this week was the suit of Arthur C. Schiller against Mitchell, Schiller and Barnes, a New York firm, to recover $9,280, alleged to be the liability incurred by the plaintiff while an agent of the company. It is claimed by Schiller that he purchased stock in the Phillips Colliery Company in West Virginia at the request of his company in 1906, spending $15,000 for the stock.

Some of this money was paid to him by a balance of $9,280 remaining due when a change was made in the firm and the agreement was repudiated.

In Social Circles.

Syrian Visits Connelleville.
Prof. Clarence C. Kochenderfer, a Blair county young man, who during the past 18 months has been in the Consular Service of the United States government at Beirut, Syria, the gateway and leading seaport of the Holy Land having a population of 150,000. Mr. Kochenderfer is perhaps the youngest member of Uncle Sam's Consular Service, being 24 years of age. He was appointed to the Consul Department at Beirut soon after he was 22, and received the position while teaching in the American University located at that city. The university is under the control of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. Instruction is given by 70 professors, and the attendance numbers more than 800 representing all nationalities and sects.

Prof. Kochenderfer has traveled extensively in Europe visiting the chief historical places in England, Scotland, France, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Greece, Turkey, Syria, Palestine and Egypt.

Prof. Kochenderfer will deliver his instructive and entertaining lecture on Turkey, Egypt and the Holy Land in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium Monday, March 28, at 8:15 P. M.

Social Meeting.
The regular meeting of the Woman's Culture Club will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Armory. The meeting will be of a social nature and a very excellent program consisting of Schubert's selections will be carried out. The annual installation of officers will take place. All members have the privilege of inviting a friend.

A paper describing the different compositions of Schubert's and illustrating the various numbers to be rendered will be read by Mrs. E. B. Rife. The paper was written by Mrs. W. O. Schooner. The program is as follows: Instrumental selection, "Erlkönig," Miss Pearl Kock; (trumpet solo), "The Wanderer," S. F. Alford; vocal solo, "Sylvia," Miss Florence Goldsmith; "Ave Marie," Mrs. George P. Donohoo; serenade, Miss Elizabeth Mac Brown; (1) Instrumental selections, (2) Unfinished Symphony in B Minor, (3) March, "The Lark," Mrs. Harry Williams of Dunbar; instrumental duet, "Alone," Misses Florence Goldsmith and Pearl Kock. Light refreshments will follow the program.

Pretty Card Party.
Artistic decorations marked a very pretty card party at which Mrs. J. A. Lyon was hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on East Main street. The hours were from 2:30 until 6 o'clock. Large bouquets of sweet peas, roses, carnations and lilies were effectively placed in the various rooms while ferns and palms were greatly in evidence. Seven tables were required for five hundred, the game played. The prize winners were Mrs. J. M. Young and Miss Doris Corley. The latter cards were dainty little booklets affixed surmounted with attractive lilies. At the close of the games an elaborate luncheon was served.

The out of town guests present were Mrs. L. B. Brallier, Mrs. M. B. Stuart, Miss Elcher, of Scotland, and Mrs. Zimmerman of Mt. Pleasant. Mrs. Lyon is entertaining at cards again Monday night.

The Silver Thimble club was pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Otto Kuebler at her home on Elm street. All members and several guests were present. Five hundred was played until about 5 o'clock when a very dainty luncheon was served. The next meeting will be held Thursday afternoon, April 8, at the home of Mrs. W. K. Allen on the South Side.

Evening at Cards.
Three tables of five hundred were in play at the regular meeting of the Elwert Club last evening at the home of Miss Nettie Schuyler on Crawford avenue. All members were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent at cards. Refreshments followed the games.

Ladies Sew.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Zimmerman on East Fairview avenue. The afternoon was spent in sewing. The next meeting will be held Thursday afternoon, April 8.

P. J. Meets.
Miss Irene Holman entertained the A. F. J. Society of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School last evening at her home on Patterson avenue. The attendance was large and the evening was a most enjoyable one. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Missionary Circle Meets.
Mrs. L. V. Marshall entertained the Women's Missionary Circle of the First Baptist Church yesterday afternoon at her home on Johnson avenue. The meeting was the regular monthly one of the Circle and a most interesting program was carried out.

King's Daughters Will Meet.
The regular meeting of the Whatsoever Circle of the King's Daughters of the First Presbyterian Church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Samuel Cox on Apple street. All members are urged to attend.

Ladies' Aid Meets.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Trinity Lutheran Church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. J. B. Marietta on East Fairview avenue. The regular routine business was transacted after which refreshments were served.

Will Kiss Officers.
The regular meeting of the National Protective Legion will be held this evening in Munson's hall. The annual election of officers will take place and a large attendance is desired.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON AND NIGHT.

"UNION DEPOT" WAS A GOOD PERFORMANCE

Amateur Performers Make Good in Funny Play at the Soisson.

Nearly every home talent production shows a new star in the firmament of amateur theatrical talent and the "Union Depot" last night was no exception. Miss Marie Gemas, in the role of a Bowery girl, took the stellar honors with ease and was the one big hit of the production. Miss Gemas was not cast to be the star but she was anyhow.

Miss Gemas shared laurels with Mrs. J. C. Newcomer and Miss Marie Bonford. The cast was an exceptionally large one but the play was one which required but little histrionic talent. As a result all of the participants made good; some a shade better than the others. As a dramatic production the play would be open to criticism, but it was put on to amuse an audience which was not critical, and it made good.

There are many good features of the play but the show is on again to night at the Soisson and is worth seeing. And while you are there don't forget to size up the youngsters who made the real hit of the evening last night. H. M. Bell received two handsome bouquets of chrysanthemums (paper).

MOVING DAY.

The Season of Cold Lunches and Bruised Fingers Almost Here.

Moving time is almost here, and a lot of people will undergo the worry and bother incident to a change of residence. The man who owns his own home and never moves will be in a position to laugh at his less fortunate neighbor who is wrestling with carpets and stove pipes. The latter will very likely resolve that he, too, will be a home owner. The best way to acquire a home is to open a savings account with the First National Bank of Connelleville, and add to it until you have money enough to make the first payment. Your savings will not only be absolutely safe, but will earn 4 per cent interest in the First National.

HAD BAD FALL.

Miss Margaret Percy Slipped and Fell in Pittsburg Street.

Miss Margaret Percy, clerk for Mace & Company, met with a very painful accident this morning on North Pittsburg street. While walking a cross-log over a cellar door near J. W. McClelland's store she slipped and fell sustaining a very painful injury to her back.

She was assisted to Mace & Company's store and later removed to her home in West Peach street. While very painful her injuries are not serious.

TO HELP BALL TEAM.

Benefit Performance is On at the Elbow Theatre Tonight.

For the benefit of the Connelleville baseball team the Elbow theatre will donate all the receipts of this evening's performance and has arranged an entertaining program for the patrons of the amusement house. All the money taken in tonight will be given to the ball team.

The talking picture tonight will be "The Cord of Life." Other pictures are "For Mother's Sake," and "A Trip Through Africa."

TOMORROW AFTERNOON AND NIGHT.

GOLD DUST will take the grime and smut, grease and dirt from your pots and pans in a twinkling, leaving them as clean as when new GOLD DUST is so far ahead of soap for cleaning pots and pans, that the woman who does not use it is really doing about twice as much work as necessary. The soap merely cleans off the surface, and does not dig deep after the germs of decay which accumulate on pots, pans and kettles which are in constant use.

GOLD DUST does more than clean—it goes to the very heart of things, kills every germ and sterilizes your cooking utensils. It makes them sanitariously clean and safe.

GOLD DUST does the work in just half the time that it can be done with soap or any other cleansers.

GOLD DUST is a vegetable oil soap in powdered form which starts to work the moment it strikes the water; it cleans quickly, easily and thoroughly.

FOREIGNER COUNTED PENNIES FOR LIBERTY

Finally Pinched Out $2.50 to Pay Fine and Was Given a Quarter to Go Home On.

Tony Ventoe of Broad Ford had to count out his pennies to raise a $2.50 fine in police court this morning. He produced $2 at first but Burgess Evans advised him to "keep digging" until he finally made the entire amount. Then the Burgess released and gave back a quarter so Tony could ride home. It went hard with the foreigner to part with his money, but he had a good jag last night and those things come high when the offender lands in police court.

John Tolmaky worked in Pittsburg the "last time" and was headed for Rockwood where he wants to dig coal. As the railroad tracks are not crowded, John was told to get out of town in 30 minutes. Mike Oboka, a Sallick township farmer, will remain in Connelleville 48 hours longer than he had intended as the result of a jag.

Medicines Made From Roots and Herbs.
In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers they depended upon medicines made from the roots and herbs to cure diseases.

Lydell E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that standard remedy which is made from roots and herbs for women's ills, has its origin in this way: "For thirty years it has been redeeming its promise written on the label of every bottle by curing thousands of women of feminine ills. It's a good honest medicine."

Have to Post Forfeits.
The Pennsylvania-West Virginia League will meet in Uniontown Monday morning when the schedule will be adopted and all forfeits posted. Morgantown, it is said, wants a berth in the league. All forfeits are to be posted at Monday's meeting.

PURE BLOOD.

The Secret of a Good Complexion—

How to Obtain It.

Scarcely one is beginning to realize that external applications will not rid the skin of the disfigurements of eczema, pimples, blackheads, rashes, etc. The remedy must go deeper to the seat of the trouble—the blood.

And it is for this reason that the famous "Dr. Taylor's Remedy" has become so widely known and used. It is the only great blood purifier absolutely destroys all the poisonous germs in the system, that cause skin blemishes. Its quick and thorough action, in even the worst case of eczema, has surprised and delighted an enormous number of patients who had despaired of relief under the ordinary treatment of physicians and "so-called" remedies. The record of Dr. Taylor's Remedy is therefore one of unflinching success, and in its use is largely found the secret of a clear, beautiful complexion.

An illustrated booklet describing the remedy will be mailed free by the Dr. Taylor Remedy Co., Philadelphia; and the remedy itself and booklet can be obtained at J. C. MOORE'S and at all first-class druggists.

Local and Personal Mention.

ADVERTISING.
The Daily Courier has double the circulation of any other daily newspaper in Fayette county and the Connelleville area and it is better distributed for the general advertiser. It is the only paper that presents each week a new and different picture of the community. It has a special value as an advertising medium for such interests.

SUBSCRIPTION.
DAILY, $1.00 per year; 10¢ per copy. PAY NO MONEY to carriers, but only to collectors with proper credentials. Any irregularities of carriers in the delivery of the Courier to homes by the carriers will be reported to the publisher. Agents in other towns should be reported to this office at once.

FRIDAY EVENING, MAR. 26, 1932.

THE UNWISDOM OF BLIND ENDORSEMENTS.

The invitation of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce to the Connelleville Chamber to immediately protest against the passage of the State Senate bill giving street railroads and street cars the right to connect tracks and interchange cars will be taken under advisement by the Connelleville body. The decision of the latter, it is needless to say, is wise.

The Connelleville business men are not given to the rank folly of endorsing anything blindly, whether the matter for endorsement is somebody else's promise to pay or some other community's individual interest. The Murphy bill may be detrimental to Connelleville interests, or it may not be; it may be for the general good, or it may be against it.

Whatever action is taken by the Connelleville Chamber of Commerce should be taken after a full knowledge of the measure and a thorough discussion of its probable effects.

MORE NEW NAMES FOR MAIN STREET.

A citizen of the West Side suggests that Main street be called "Pennsylvania avenue," because "myriads of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and turkeys, together with innumerable conveyances of all descriptions," once traversed it from Hogg's bill to Snyder street on their way to the eastern markets, when it was a "highway of the State."

If we follow this argument to its logical conclusion it is evident that the proper name for the principal thoroughfare will be "The Pike." The name Pennsylvania avenue is urged because it is capable of abbreviation to "Penna. ave." or "Pa. av.," or possibly to "Pay." As a rule, however, such abbreviations are not tasteful or respectful, expressive or explicit, commendable or desirable.

If it is a short name that is desired, one which is resilient with live stock colors and reminiscent of primitive days, by all means let it be "The Pike."

NOT ONLY JUSTICE BUT CHRISTIANITY.

The Gordon girls have been arrested and placed in jail again on a charge of incorrigibility preferred by their father.

The charge should be closely investigated. The witnesses in the trial should be promised protection by the court.

If these young girls are actually incorrigible they should be sent to one of the State's reform schools. The jail is no place for them.

If, however, their prosecution is in any degree a persecution, they should be liberated, and some decent effort made to save them from the evil consequences of their jail experience. This will not only be justice, but it will be Christianity as well.

THE HARES AND TURTLES OF FAYETTE JOURNALISM.

The Uniontown Herald announces this morning under large headlines that a clash between the State authorities of Pennsylvania and Ohio may make the extradition of the female accomplice of Billy Whitt's abductor a difficult matter.

The Pittsburgh morning papers, however, tell us that the woman was in that city last evening, and that she signed a waiver of her right of extradition.

The Herald is always boasting of its superior enterprise and ability. We admit that it is perhaps the Hare of Fayette county journalism, but we are tattered turtles never get quite so far behind as this in the race for news.

The Herald is advised to get a better Marathon movement on itself.

DUTIES OF THE PRESS AND ACTS OF DODGERS.

We find this editorial paragraph in the rejuvenated, revived and greatly reprinted Official Organ, once an active and earnest advocate of Expansion, now an apparent standpatter:

South Connelleville seems to have its mind made up for incorporation. It is in South Connelleville that the question should be decided.

Some editors are sometimes too ignorant or too cowardly to discuss public questions as public newspapers should. The Courier speaks to and for the citizens of South Connelleville as candidly and conscientiously as it speaks to and for the people of Connelleville. The Courier's sphere of usefulness is not confined to Connelleville, or to South Connelleville, or to Fayette county. It may be different with The News.

The Courier is not a Trimmer, not a Dodger, not a Dissiminator. It fights openly and fairly, and it professes outspoken sincerity to thinly veiled and ill-concealed hypocrisy.

It is not swayed by petty jealousies or private interests; it is a Paper for the People.

The man who really runs the West Penn Railway at Connelleville is referred to in our news column yesterday as the possessor of a "stenoriant" voice. The writer wrote "stenoriant" but the intelligent compositor insisted upon his peculiar version possibly because he considered it a good combination of "stenoriant" and "stenoriant." John's voice is all of both. Some statesmen would go miles to get it.

Sligo has stopped only to get a better move on.

Somerset county is growing in population as well as in wealth. New towns are springing up like mushrooms in the night. The people are getting richer, the principal source of foreign trade, has become like unto thirty cents compared with the coal industry.

The Tariff bill is to be abridged. It can't be pushed too hard to suit the country.

Constable Shrum wants a new deal. He is not satisfied with any verdict which reflects upon his official conduct. The verdict, however, might have been worse.

The coke trade had better be on a dead center than to be altogether dead.

All fat pocketbooks which recede peacefully and prominently upon the sidewalks are not April Fool jokes. Chief Rotter thinks it is better to be fooled many times than never to have found anything at all.

The attitude of a prominent society woman is fresh proof of the fact that riches do not always bring happiness.

The Somerset County Commissioners are thinking it is better to provide money for a new insane asylum before building it. There is nothing insane about this verdict.

Suggestions for Spring municipal cleaning are in order not yet but soon.

Only a few weeks ago the Drys predicted with a resigned air that some sort of a Local Option bill would be passed, but it seems that the Local Option movement was very local.

Suits for the profits of coal options are appearing in the Somerset county courts. The bigger the profits the more in suits of this kind the less willing he usually is to share with anybody else.

The lawyers are splitting hairs over the legal liability of the woman accomplice in the Whittie kidnapping case. They argue that the woman cannot be indicted in Mercer county because she is not connected with the crime in this State. There is enough circumstantial evidence to prove that she was an accomplice, and the matter of jurisdiction is of minor importance. She can only be tried once.

Governor Stuart will have another try at the graft trials when he gets the legislature off his hands.

The robbery of a Pittsburgh street store by burglars who climbed over the transom of the front door, in the brilliant light of an arc light only about one hundred feet distant, was a bold piece of work, and indicates either drunken recklessness or delirious boldness.

The Pittsburgh street robbers perhaps thought the postoffice location was pretty well out of town, the vicinity a safe place to operate in.

The Whitties got their boy and their money back, and the kidnappers will get the Pen for their. This wages of sin are seldom worth working for.

In the present condition of public opinion, officials can get an advance easier than they can get a raise.

Whisky is not taken in payment of toll at Connelleville, but its confiscation and destruction by the tollkeeper is not lawful, nor does it seem as if any attempt at murderous retaliation.

Dawson is on the anti-fire line.

The annual report of the Bell Telephone Company shows that it is one of the Octopuses, but it is running a benevolent beast in the matter of its charges there will be no public desire to hunt it down.

The Pittsburgh Traffic Club is getting a reputation for its dinners.

A Flea for Pennsylvania Avenue.

By J. R. Bailey.
While names are being suggested for the main thoroughfare through Greater Connelleville from East to West, I thought I would suggest one. If I was sitting on the throne and had the naming power it would be called "Pennsylvania avenue." Now don't get excited but wait and hear my reasons.

There are a number of old citizens still living that can go into a day room, sit down, close their optics and with their mind's eye look west and see coming down over Ross's hill, myriads of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and turkeys, together with innumerable conveyances of all descriptions. They see this moving throng as it passes through the old covered wooden bridge, or wades the placid waters of the Trough, and watch it as it passes up through the town and out Snyder street on its way to the far eastern side of Pennsylvania. It was the highway of the State, and it was an off-day in those times it from one to a dozen droves of some kind of animals did not pass over this route during the summer season. I believe that Pennsylvania avenue would be the most appropriate name that could be given to this thoroughfare. It has two abbreviations that can be used in business for convenience, "Penna." or "Pa." Broadway or Fifth avenue are commonplace names compared with it. Seventh street should be named Crawford avenue because along this street Colonel Crawford built his cabin and lived for a number of years, and his spring is still there to remind us of his heroic deeds and tragic death.

The most noted thoroughfare in any city is Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C. If Greater Connelleville wants to grow greater, let her take on great names. Call our street "Pennsylvania avenue."

REPORT RIVAL OF THREE WEEKS.

House Commission Dug Up
Some Extremely Sensational Matter.

CAME VERY NEAR MISSING IT

One Congressman Spies the Report and Tells His Neighbors, After Which Follows a Rush—The Dignified U. S. Court and Its Procedure.

United Press Telegram.
WASHINGTON, March 26.—Members of Congress who have carefully read the report of the House Committee on the Roosevelt's Home Commission have discovered that it contains a nice, juicy little story about the late occupant of the White House.

About the eleventh hundred and seventy-seventh message from President Roosevelt transmitted the report, a "Home Commission" to Congress. Communications from the late President were so much of a daily diet, that nobody paid any attention to this particular message and report. Who cared about "homes" when there was a nice scrap on about the Secret Service? So the message and report were printed, distributed, and, it seems, most of them were consigned to the wastebasket without even a glance by a majority of the busy legislators.

Some eagle-eyed statesman, however, happened to open the "Home" report one day, and found it told more picturesque tales about human vice and devilishness than he'd ever found collected in one volume. That statesman read all the naughty parts, and the next day in the Senate chamber out loud for his badness. Others hustled out and found copies that later raised their voices on the floor of both houses and said "Naughty! Naughty!"

Now the House Commission is a report of 241 pages. Most of the members only hastily read the Blinn Olyn parts, and skipped the rest. It remained for "Chief" Tawney, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee to dig a little deeper. He found a perfect mine of information on what to eat, what to wear, where to live, how to live, what's naughty and what's good, and has been edifying his colleagues with the result of his researches ever since.

Among the bits of wisdom discovered by Tawney are the following: Skimmed milk is the residue after the cream has been removed.

Butter is formed by churning the cream of milk.

Boots and shoes are intended to protect the feet from the uneven and rough surfaces of the ground, from cold, wet, and heat.

It is a good plan to use nightgowns and pajamas.

Spoken of in the "Home" report says: "Practical experience also teaches us that a dreamless sleep is in every way conducive to health. A dreamless night produces a tired feeling in the morning; hence dreams should be avoided."

Nothing must be adapted to climate and seasons.

All of which is, as Representative Mann aptly expressed it in the House, after Tawney had read a few of the above, "interesting, if true."

There is a man on the Government payroll whose sacred duty is the making of quill pens. It is a light, congenial employment too, for he very seldom has to fashion any new points—the same old quills have been doing duty for several years.

Then there is another man who draws money from Uncle Sam whose sole duty is to march slowly and with a dignified manner in front of nine other clerks, and, however, do a lot more to earn their money.

The Supreme Court of the United States gives employment to these two unique servants of the public.

The "court of last resort" of the United States is the most interesting deliberative body in the country—apart from its eminence, its distinctive character and its membership.

The small court chamber, embowered in the gloom of tradition, the Senate of the United States occupied the same room until 1850, wherefore there clings to it something of the atmosphere of olden days.

Tradition clings to every feature of court procedure. The entrance of Chief Justice Fuller and the Associate Justices to the courtroom is a solemn, dignified proceeding. The nine highest interpreters of the law assemble in a small room in the west side of the Capitol shortly before noon. At three minutes of twelve, two red silk cords are looped across the hallway to the door of the court room, and headed by the usher, and in the order of their seniority, the nine justices march into the court room.

On the bench the justices are seated strictly with regard to their seniority. The Chief Justice, the venerable Melville W. Fuller, with a halo of white hair, has the center seat. Few people know that Justice Fuller is "The Chief Justice of the United States" not Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. His title is fixed by the Constitution.

Members of Ways and Means Committee, if Their Plan is Successful, Will Propose a Number of Amendments to the Payne Tariff Measure.

Washington, March 26.—A new plan is to be followed in the consideration of the Payne tariff in the House. To-day, it is understood, the rules committee will bring in a special order to limit general debate to next Wednesday and to allow six days for the consideration of the Payne bill under the five-minute rule.

In order that the Republican leaders may have an opportunity to get as many members in line as possible, it is not proposed to bring in any rule for limiting amendments to the bill until next week. The present plan is to hold a caucus and endeavor to bind it to support the rule which will limit possible amendments to seven or eight paragraphs in addition to those amendments which the committee on ways and means may propose. This is likely to bring about a fresh outbreak on the part of the insurgents. It is for the object of getting as many of these as possible to support the rule that the delay is being made.

The object of bringing in a rule to restrict amendments is to secure the early passage of the bill and as nearly as possible in the shape it was reported.

The principal schedules upon which the proposed rule will permit amendments are hides, coal, lumber and iron ore.

Gore Wants an Income Tax.
Washington, March 26.—Senator Gore has introduced a bill for an amendment to the constitution providing "that congress shall have power to levy and collect taxes, graduated or otherwise, on any or all classes of income."

OIL DUTY ASSAILED
So-Called "Joker" in Tariff Bill Assailed by Vreeland.
Washington, March 26.—A voluntary abstention by Mr. Vreeland of New York that he was to some extent responsible for the retention in the Payne tariff bill of the countervailing duty on oil was the climax of the discussion of the tariff in the House. Mr. Vreeland had sat for some time and heard various insinuations that that duty, which some have characterized as a "joker," was to be levied solely in the interest of the Standard Oil company. This he denied, and explained that his action was in response to requests from thousands of his oil-producing constituents and behalf of 500,000 others engaged in the same business. The debate on the oil schedule called forth some bitter criticism of the Standard Oil company by Mr. Kusterman of Wisconsin and others.

Numerous speeches were made touching the tariff question generally and many of the schedules in particular. The arguments from the Democratic standpoint were for a tariff for revenue only, while the Republicans attacked such schedules as those on wool, wood pulp and print paper and crude petroleum.

FURNACEMEN PROTEST
Object to Putting Iron Ore on Free List in New Tariff.
Youngstown, O., March 26.—Independent pig iron manufacturers have adopted a protest against the free admission of iron ore and reduction of iron and steel scrap duty from 44 to 50 cents. A memorial to this effect is being prepared to send to congress.

BIG RAILROADERS AT DINNER

Some of the Country's Most Prominent Men Will Attend Pittsburg Banquet.

Pittsburg, March 26.—One of the greatest gatherings of leading railroad men ever assembled in this country will meet here tonight at the annual banquet of the local Traffic club. While the greater part of the guests at the banquet will be railroad men, a large number of other prominent men will also be present.

Among the speakers at the banquet will be Secretary of State Knox, former United States Senator Housh of Indiana and President Finley of the Southern railway. Over 300 invitations have been sent to prominent railroad men, captains of industry and others. On the list of guests is James McCreary, president of the Pennsylvania railroad; W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central lines, and Chairman Knapp and other members of the interstate commerce commission.

WHO WANTS TO BE A BALDHEAD

Thousands of men are daily growing bald and don't know it. These persistent germs of dandruff, often called the destructive agents of the scalp, are in full possession of the future hair of thousands of Americans.

They have wonderful endurance, these little demons; they never stop work, they dig and dig and dig and gnaw and gnaw and gnaw night and day, day and night, with seemingly only one purpose in view, and that purpose to destroy the vitality of the hair and make us a race of baldheads.

What are you doing to protect yourself from the ravishing hordes of these almost unconquerable fleas?

There is only one way to kill the dandruff germ, or the dandruff germ will kill your hair. The quicker you start, the quicker you can win the battle.

The only weapon you need is a bottle of Burdock Sarsaparilla. The only hair preparation that spells death to the dandruff germ.

Get a bottle today. A. A. Clarke sells it for 50 cents and guarantees it to cure dandruff in two weeks or money back. Direct, all charges prepaid, for 50 cents, from Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

KIDNAPERS IN PITTSBURG JAIL.

Threat of Violence at Mercer Causes Change of Plans.

WILL BE THERE SEVERAL DAYS

Mercer County Officers Having Willis Whittle's Abductors in Charge Hear News From Home That Brings About Change in Destination.

Pittsburg, March 25.—Billy Whittle's abductors are in Pittsburg. Whittle in an automobile from the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad station, where they arrived from Cleveland, James H. Boyle and his supposed wife, Helen Boyle, or Faulkner, who have been identified as the captors of the kidnaped Sharon lad, were hurried to the Allegheny county jail, where they will be held for two or three days at least.

Fear of a riot at Mercer, the original destination of the party having the kidnappers in charge, led to change in plans. At Youngstown Sheriff Chess of Mercer county, custodian of Boyle and his wife, learned that a crowd was awaiting the arrival of the train at Mercer; that the people were in a frenzy of rage against the two prisoners and that violence was threatened.

Immediately a change of trains was effected and the special car bearing the kidnappers came direct to Pittsburg over the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad.

In the party on the special Pullman were Sheriff Addison Cumber of Allegheny county, who went to Cleveland last Wednesday at the special request of Sheriff Chess; Martin C. Grinn, chief of police of Sharon; Attorney T. C. Cochran, assistant attorney of Mercer county, in which Sharon is situated; G. B. Perkins, Harry Perkins, W. W. Perkins, J. V. Kopper and T. N. Miller, all of the Perkins detective agency.

"It was out of the question to take them to Mercer," said Sheriff Chess. "I do not know now when I will do so, but it would not be safe until public feeling has somewhat cooled down."

Although the arrival of the party at the station was unheralded, the news that Willis Whittle's captors had come to Pittsburg flashed through the depot in two seconds. A crowd had assembled by the time the auto was ready to chug away, but there was no demonstration whatever.

CROWD HOOTS PRISONERS

Whittle Kidnapers Return Voluntarily to Pennsylvania For Trial.

Cleveland, March 25.—With hoots and jeers ringing in their ears, James H. Boyle and his wife, arrested here as the kidnappers of little Willis Whittle of Sharon, Pa., were escorted by police to an Erie train just before it left for Pittsburg.

This practically closes the case as far as Cleveland is concerned, for their action will be taken by the Pennsylvania authorities. However, the Cleveland police have a club over the heads of the Boyles in a joint indictment, charging James H. Boyle and Helen Boyle, alias Faulkner, with blackmail. This charge is based on the payment of $10,000 ransom by J. P. Whittle for the recovery of his son Willis here last Monday.

The case will be taken by the local officials in the event that the case in Pennsylvania fails of conviction.

Saloonekeeper Patrick O'Reilly of Cleveland has prepared affidavits claiming the $10,000 reward offered by the state of Pennsylvania.

WHITLA BRINGS CASH HOME

Ransom Money Placed in Bank to Be Used as Evidence.

Sharon, Pa., March 25.—Guarded by several private detectives in plain clothes, James P. Whittle, father of the abducted lad for whose ransom $10,000 was paid, returned home bringing the money, which was recovered when James Boyle and his wife were arrested. The packages of bills were taken to the safety deposit department of the Sharon Savings and Trust company, where they were placed in a box to remain until they may be needed as evidence in the kidnapping trial.

Mr. Whittle came on the same train with the prisoners as far as Youngstown.

4 KILLED, 2 MISSING

By Fall of Wall Left Standing After Fire in Chicago.

Chicago, March 25.—Four men were killed and five seriously injured when a thirty-five foot brick wall left standing after a fire fell upon them.

The men were working in the ruins of Darling & Co.'s fertilizing plant, destroyed by fire Jan. 6. It is thought that the wind blew the wall over.

The list of dead includes R. A. Schmidt, secretary of the R. A. Schmidt company, contractors. The others killed were laborers. Two other laborers are missing.

Found Dead in Lodging House.

Philadelphia, March 25.—A man with visiting cards inscribed "Senator J. C. Garner," said to be from Syracuse, N. Y., was found dead in a lodging house here. The coroner's physician diagnosed the case as uremic convulsion.

DEFEAT BLACKS.

Twenty Determined Officers Overcome 100 Negroes in Fight.

Guthrie, Okla., March 25.—On the scene of the Creek Indian uprising of last year at Hickory settlement two negroes were killed, many wounded and forty captured in an encounter between twenty deputy sheriffs and 100 negroes.

Five deputies went from Henrietta, eighteen miles north, to the negro settlement to arrest cattle thieves. They were met at the edge of the camp by a party of armed negroes, who refused to allow them to enter. The deputies persisted and were fired upon. The two deputies fled.

A few hours later a larger posse reached the settlement. Someone fired a shot and the fighting was on. When night fell the excitement increased and negroes roamed through the woods firing and yelling. The fight continued as a series of duels throughout the night, the negroes retreating as the deputies advanced. Reaching the settlement the negroes barricaded themselves in the huts.

At daybreak firing ceased and neither party made another move until 10 o'clock, when the deputies renewed the attack on the negroes, who now numbered one hundred against twenty deputies. In the last encounter two negroes were killed and Deputy Sheriff Fowler injured. At the first onslaught the negroes were dislodged and fled. The deputies pursued and captured forty.

CASTRO SAILING HOME.

He Leaves French Port on His Way to Venezuela.

Bordeaux, France, March 25.—Sailing today on the steamer Guadalupe, bound for West Indian and Venezuelan ports, was Cipriano Castro, former president of Venezuela, who has been in Europe several months for his health.

Members of Castro's party declared that his sailing for home was a reply to his enemies, who had asserted that he would never return to South America. Castro professed a warm love for his native land and declared vehemently that his foes had maligned his government. In view, however, of the indictments returned against him by the high court of Venezuela, in which he is accused of compassing the deaths of some of his political opponents, he will not go directly to La Guayra, the port of Caracas, but will leave the Guadeloupe at Port of Spain, Trinidad.

Castro's parting words were: "I believe that God and destiny call me back to Venezuela. I intend to accomplish my mission there, even though it involves revolution."

Senor Castro has elected to land at Trinidad. The agent of the French line formally notified him that he must leave the steamer at some port of call before Venezuela.

HUSTON TRIAL APRIL 13

Court Grants Severance in Capital Treasoning Conspiracy Cases.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 25.—The cases of John H. Sanderson, ex-Auditor General Snyder and ex-Superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings Shumaker have been severed by Judge Kunkel from that of Architect Joseph M. Huston in the capital contract conspiracy case. Huston is to stand trial alone, but because of the severance of the other cases, and consequent necessity for rearrangement of his defense the court granted a postponement of the trial from April 8 to April 13.

The severance was granted to Sanderson because it was shown that he cannot stand the strain of a trial without fatal results and to the others because of the condition of Shumaker's health and the disadvantage to which they would be put by Sanderson being cut out from them.

ANTI-SUFFRAGETTE MEETING

Englishwoman Declares Themselves Opposed to Woman's Voting.

London, March 25.—Determined to show to the public that all English women do not share in the views of those who invade the house of commons and besiege the house of Premier Asquith in their desire to acquire votes, a large meeting of influential women was held here today.

The women who do not desire to vote are led by Mrs. Humphry Ward, the famous novelist, who presided at the meeting. Among the other speakers were Lord Cromer, the former ruler of Egypt, and Austen Chamberlain, son of Joseph Chamberlain. The meeting of the anti-suffragettes was held in Queen's hall.

YOUTH RESENTS SLIGHT

By Blowing Top of His Cranium Off With a Shotgun.

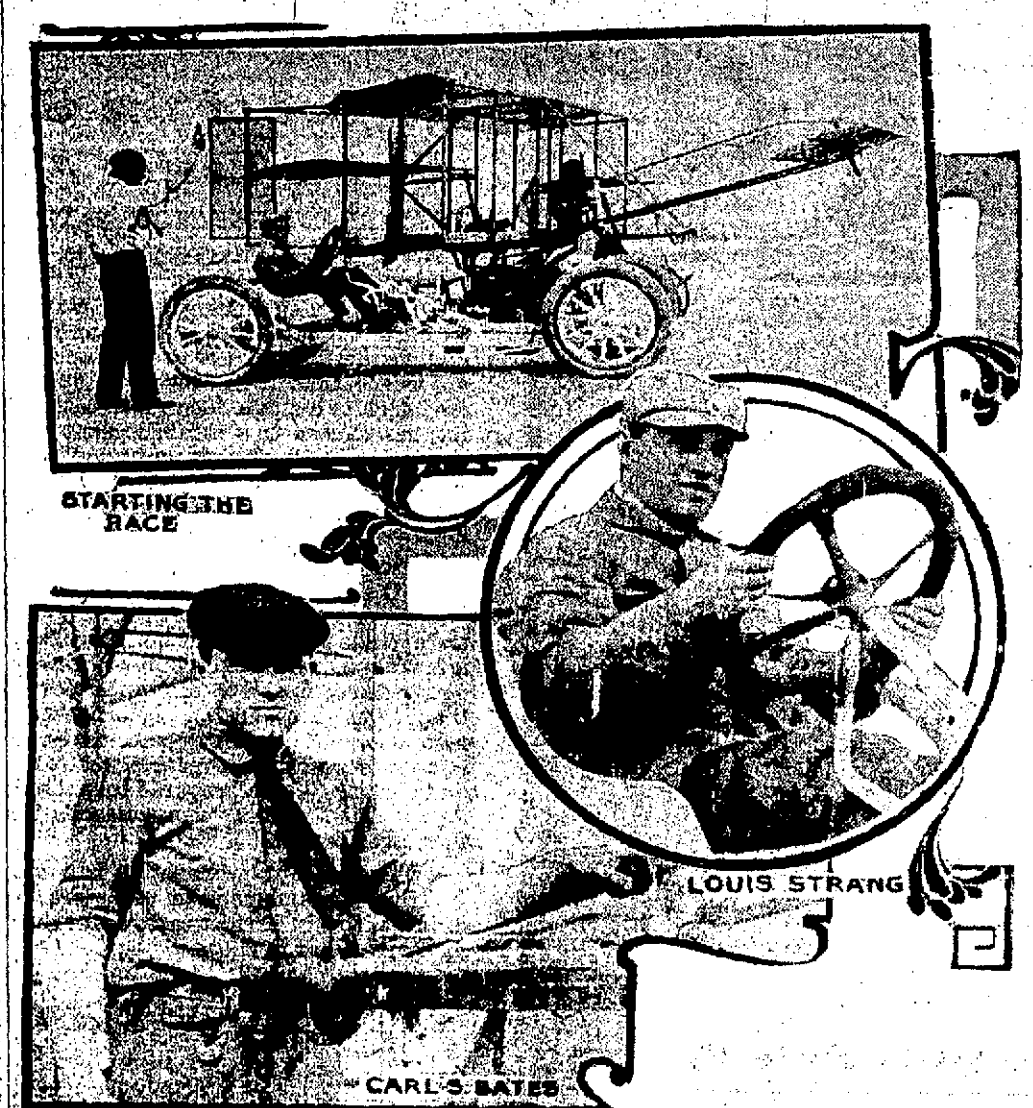

York, Pa., March 25.—Chagrined because he had not been selected to act as pallbearer at the funeral of his cousin, sixteen-year-old Palmer Ehrhart of Potosi, near here, killed himself by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun.

Seated in a rocking chair the youth placed the muzzle of the gun at his head and manipulated the trigger with his foot.

Rushes From Lady Love to River.

Logansport, Ind., March 25.—Arthur L. Boyer, a Chicago business dealer, rushed from the home of Agnes O'Connor in this city and threw himself into the Wabash river. He was pursued by the woman, but she could not stop him. They had quarreled.

DRIVERS AND SCENE OF NOVEL RACE BETWEEN AUTOMOBILE AND AEROPLANE

The hundreds of automobile enthusiasts who have been watching the auto races at Daytona beach, Florida, were treated to several novel speed contests between an automobile and an aeroplane. The flying machine is the invention of Carl S. Bates, a Chicago boy, and was driven by him in many successful flights along the sand course. Bates built the machine and arriving unheralded at Daytona one day, unpacked it and promptly began sailing up and down the beach. A speed of 50 miles an hour was easy for the aeroplane, and a series of races between the Bates machine and a fast automobile driven by Louis Strang, the "speed demon," was arranged. The Bates aeroplane takes flight from a standing start and, rising to a height of 50 or 100 feet, skims gracefully through the air. It was easy for Strang to drive his car faster than 50 miles an hour, but the novelty of a race between these two twentieth century inventions was a source of great interest.

Runnion shrank from his proffered assistance half fearfully, but, reassured, allowed the Frenchman to help him toward the shore.

"We tell it to first boat 'bout you an' dey pick you up. You wait here, Nedra."

The girl watched her rescuer guide Runnion up to the level of the woods, then disappear with him in the first, and was relieved to see the two emerge upon the river bank again for her on, for she had feared for an instant that Poleon might forget. There seemed to be no danger, however, for he was crawling through the brush in advance of the other, who followed laboriously. Once Runnion gained the high point he would be able to command a view of both reaches of the river and could make signals to attract the first steambot that chanced to come along. Without doubt a craft of some sort would pass from one direction or the other by tomorrow at latest, or, if not, she and Poleon could send back word to him from the first habitation they encountered. The two men disappeared again, and her fears had begun to prey on her a second time when she beheld the big Canadian returning. He was hurrying a bit, apparently to be rid of the mosquitoes that swarmed about him, and she marked that, in addition to rubbing himself with a handful of black-berry bushes, he wore Runnion's coat to protect his shoulders.

"Woof! Dose skeeter bug is hon-ary," he cried.

"Dis nice battens!" Poleon remarked critically. "I mak' it go fast," and began to row swiftly, seeking the breeze of the open river in which to shake off the horde of stinging pests that had risen with the sun. "I come way quack without tinkin' 'bout gun or skeeter net or notin'." Runnion she's len' me dis coat, so mebbe I don' look so worse lak I do jus' now, eh?"

"How did you leave him? Is he badly injured?"

"No, I baw' it up on de face an' de rib, but she's feelin' good now. Yes, I'm leave 'im nice place fer stop an' wait on de steambot—plantees spruce bough fer set out."

She began to shudder again, and, sensitive to her every motion, he asked solicitously if she were sick, but she shook her head.

"I—I was thinking what—supposing you hadn't come! Oh, Poleon, you don't know what you saved me from." She leaned forward and laid a tiny, grateful hand on the huge brown paw

Barnum. "We will keep the steamer close to this shore, so that he can sail us when we overtake him."

And so they resumed their toilsome trip, but mile after mile fell behind them, and still no voice came from the woods—no figure hailed them. Doret, inscrutable and silent, lounged against the pilothouse smoking innumerable cigarettes which he rolled from squares of newspaper, his keen eyes apparently scanning every foot of their slow way, but when night fell at last and the bank faded from sight he tossed the last bit overboard, smiled grimly into the darkness and went below.

CHAPTER XXVII.

"NO CREEK" LED came into the trading post on the following morning and found Gale attending store as if nothing unusual had occurred.

"Say! What's this about you and Stuck? I hear you had a horrible run in and that you split him up the back like a quail."

"We had a row," admitted the trader. "It's been a long time working out, and last night it came to a head."

"Lord—ee! And to think of Ben Stuck betin' lickin'! Why, the whole camp's talkin' about it. They say he smacked two six shooters at you, but you kept a-cum-b, and when you did get to him you just curved your initials on him like he was a basswood tree. Say, John, he's a goner, sure."

"Do you mean he's—passing out?"

"Oh, no, I reckon he'll get well, from what I hear, though he won't let nobody come near him except old Doc. But he's lost a battle, and that ends him. Don't you savvy? Whenever a killer quits second best it breaks his hoodoo. Why, there's been men layin' for him these twenty years from here to the Rio Grande, and every feller he ever beated will bear of this and begin to grudge his holster; then, the first chance he'll desperado that meets him will split in his eye just to make a name for himself. No, sir! He's a spent shell. He's got to fight all his battles over again, and this time the other feller will open the ball. Oh, I've seen it happen before. You killed him last night, just as sure as if you'd hung up his hide to dry, and he knows it."

"I'm a peaceable man," said Gale on the defensive. "I had to do it."

"I know! I know! There was witnesses. This dressmaker at the fort seen it, so I hear."

The other acquiesced silently. "Well, well! Ben Stuck lickin', I can't get over that. It must a' been somethin' powerful strong to make you do it, John." When the old man vouchsafed no more than a nod to a question the prospector inquired: "Where's Poleon? I've got news for him from the creek."

"I don't know. Why?"

"His laymen have give up. They're crosscut his ground, and the pay ain't there; so they've quit work for good."

"He drew a blank, eh?"

"Worse'n that—three of them. The creek is spottedter than a leopard. Runnion's men, for instance, are into it bigger than a house, while Poleon's people can't raise a color. I call it tough luck—yes, worse'n tough. It's hard billed and pickled. To them as has shall it be given and to them as hasn't shall be took even what they ain't got, as the poet says. Look at Nedra! She'll be richer than a cream puff. Guess I'll step around and see her."

"She's gone," said the trader wearily, turning his haggard face from the prospector.

"Gone! Where?"

"Up river with Runnion. They got her away from me last night."

"Sufferin' snakes!" ejaculated Gale. "So that's why." Then he added simply, "Let's go and get her, John."

The trader looked at him queerly. "Maybe I won't on the first boat! I'm eating my heart out hour by hour waitin'—waitin'—waitin' for some kind of a craft to come, and so is Burrell."

"What's he got to do with it?" said the one eyed miner jealously. "Can't you and me bring her back?"

"He'll marry her! God, won't there never be a boat?"

For the hundredth time that morning he went to the door of the post and strained his eyes downstream.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM HERE.

Gives This Simple Home Recipe Which Anyone Can Easily Prepare.

DRIVES OUT THE URIC ACID

Don't Cost Much and Druggist Says. It's the Only Mixture Known Which Cures Without Injuring the Stomach or Other Organs.

Thousands of men and women who have felt the sting and torture of this dread disease, which is no respecter of age, persons, sex, color or rank, will be interested to know that while for many years rheumatism was considered an incurable disease, now it is one of the easiest afflictions of the human body to conquer. Medical science has proven it not a distinct disease in itself, but a symptom caused by inactive kidneys. Rheumatism is uric acid in the blood and other waste products of the system which should be filtered and strained out in the form of urine. The function of the kidneys is to sift these poisons and acids out and keep the blood clean and pure. The kidneys, however, are of a sponge-like substance, the holes or pores of which will sometimes, either from overwork, cold or exposure become clogged and inactive, and failing in their function of eliminating these poisons from the blood, they remain in the veins, decompose and settling about the joints and muscles, cause the untold sufferings and pain of rheumatism and backache, often producing complications of bladder and urinary disease, weakness, etc.

The following simple prescription is said to relieve the worst cases of rheumatism because of its direct action upon the blood and kidneys, relieving, too, the most severe forms of bladder and urinary troubles. Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Karsin, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. The ingredients can be had from any good prescription pharmacy, and are absolutely harmless and safe to use at any time.

Guarantee and Recommend Vinol as the Best Cod Liver Preparation on the Market.

If any person more than another should know the value of medicine it is the retailer who sells it.

For this reason such testimony as the following should be convincing.

C. A. Potterfield, the leading druggist of Charleston, W. Va., writes: "I have used Vinol for every member of my family, and have never been disappointed in its results. It is a pleasure to sell a remedy that gives such universal satisfaction."

Mr. J. P. Bradley of New Brunswick, N. J., writes: "It is a pleasure to recommend the cod liver preparation, Vinol, as it gives such splendid satisfaction. I have used it in my family and can recommend it from experience."

As a body-builder and strength-creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness, and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unequalled. Try it on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. Graham & Company, Druggists, Connelville, Pa.

BUTLER FINDS MISTRESS DEAD:

Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Jr.,
Victim of Gas Poisoning.

CORONER'S VERDICT SUICIDE

Wife of Tobacco Millionaire and Leader in Washington's Most Exclusive Society, Goes Home From Dinner Party and Commits Suicide.

Washington, March 25.—Weary of society and face to face, as she believed, with years of physical suffering, Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Jr., age forty-nine, wife of the tobacco magnate, committed suicide by asphyxiation at her home near the fashionable Dupont circle in this city. Her tragic death has shocked the first social circle of the capital as nothing else in years. In spite of the coroner's certificate of death by suicide, members of the family declare that Mrs. Lorillard died of heart failure.

The death was made more dramatic by occurring only a few hours after Mr. and Mrs. Lorillard had been the guests of Mrs. Townsend on Massachusetts avenue at a dinner given in honor of Lady Paget.

About 8:30 a. m., the butler in the Lorillard residence detected an odor of gas and traced it to Mrs. Lorillard's apartments, finding the body of the mistress of the house lifeless on the floor of the bathroom.

The alarm by the butler brought Mr. Lorillard from his apartments. They carried the body to Mrs. Lorillard's room. A servant was dispatched for a doctor while Mr. Lorillard attempted to revive his wife by means of artificial respiration. Dr. Cuthbert arrived about the same time that Dr. Deale was admitted to the residence. Both resorted to every method within their power to restore life but after an hour's efforts gave up in despair.

Coroner Orders an Autopsy. Shortly afterward Dr. Nevitt, the coroner, was notified. He ordered an autopsy, upon the completion of which he issued a certificate of death by suicide by gas poisoning.

Inquiry at the residence met with the declaration that Mrs. Lorillard had not committed suicide. "She died of heart failure," retorted the servants.

Mrs. Lorillard left a note, which the coroner has seen but which Mr. Lorillard has declined to give his permission to publish. While addressed to no one, it is said, it is in its nature. It is understood that it contains no declaration of an intention on the part of Mrs. Lorillard to take her life.

Mrs. Lorillard was subject to frequent attacks of despondency. It is said. Mr. Lorillard states that in his opinion the death of his wife was not due to suicidal intent, but was the result of an accident. He is said to have denied that his wife had left a note.

Guest at Dinner Party. The last person to see Mrs. Lorillard alive was Mr. Lorillard. He bade her good night as they separated to go to their apartments after returning from the Townsend residence. Mrs. Lorillard was seemingly in the best of spirits. She had joined freely in the social festivities of the evening at the Townsend home, where had gathered the Brazilian ambassador and Mme. Nabuco, the Danish minister and Countess Moltke, the secretary of the navy and Mrs. Meyer, Senator and Mrs. Lodge, Senator and Mrs. Aldrich, Senator Root, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Endicott of Boston, Lady Clifford of England, Colonel and Mrs. Colin Campbell, Colonel and Mrs. McCawley, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore, the Hon. Maude Fawcett, Commodore Rodgers, Rear Admiral Cowles and Captain Archibald Butt, military aid of the president.

Still Wore Diamonds. Mrs. Lorillard's bed had the appearance of not having been occupied. She had dozed and when found was clothed in a dressing gown. The dog collar of diamonds she wore at the dinner had been removed, but a circle of diamonds that adorned her hair had not been displaced. The note was found in Mrs. Lorillard's room.

The Lorillards had lived at Hillary place, which is only a stone's throw from Dupont circle and in the heart of the fashionable community between Dupont and Sheridan circles, since January.

Mrs. Lorillard, before her marriage in 1881, was Miss Caroline J. Hamilton. She is survived by two sons, one of whom is traveling in the Orient, and the other is in college in New York.

DUTCH EXPECT HEIR

Commoners Await Signal to Announce Arrival of Heir.

Amsterdam, Holland, March 25.—The Dutch nation is awaiting the expected signal from the royal palace announcing the birth of an heir to the throne.

Preparations have been made to announce the event with flags by day and with colored fire by night, and runners are being held in readiness to inform the public of the advent of a prince or a princess by the firing of cannon.

BELL COMPANY.

Annual Report Shows Increase in Telephone Company's Earnings.

A general statement covering the business of the Bell system is included by President Theodore N. Vail with the annual report of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

There was a total of 4,364,629 telephone stations connected to the Bell system as against 3,859,000 at the close of the previous year, an increase of 505,629 stations. Of this total there were 1,103,144 exchange and toll stations connected to the Bell system by toll or long distance lines, but operated by some 7,700 local, co-operative, and rural independent companies or associations having sub-license or connection contracts.

During the year $39,736,700 was applied out of revenue to maintenance and reconstruction purposes.

The associated operating companies show reductions in floating indebtedness and increases in cash on hand, a net improvement of $5,004,000.

The Bell business as a whole, excluding duplications and treating it as if operated by a single company, showed a substantial improvement. The total earnings showed an increase over the previous year of $7,000,500, the total expenses an increase of $3,101,100. The balance of net earnings was $45,974,000, and, after deducting $11,031,500 for interest and $21,335,100 for dividends, there was left $13,607,400 in undivided profits. The combined balance sheet shows total assets of $880,041,200, with a surplus of $31,759,600, and depreciation and other reserves of $40,430,300.

The earnings of the company also show a decided improvement over last year and every previous year. The net revenue was $18,121,707.26, out of which dividends of 8 per cent were paid, amounting to $12,459,156, leaving a surplus of $5,662,551.26.

K. OF C. OUTING.

Norwalk Council Preparing For a Big Summer Event.

According to advices received by the local council of the Knights of Columbus, preparations are going rapidly forward for the big annual outing of the order, which is to be held at Cedar Point on Lake Erie, during the week of July 4 to 12.

It is the custom for the delegates to these affairs from the different councils participating to choose each year a different council to take charge of the arrangements, and this year the task has been assigned to Norwalk, O., council, No. 626. A lively little paper, "The Outing," is being issued by the committee of the latter body to keep the members of the order informed as to the progress of the arrangements, and the initial number has already been received here. E. J. Ryan, Grand Knight and Secretary of the Outing Committee, is the editor. The announcement is made that this year's reunion is to be on a larger and broader scale than ever before, and that the program will embody many new and praiseworthy features.

TRIANGULAR DEBATE

Princeton, Yale and Harvard in Three Corners Speaking Contest.

Princeton, N. Y., March 25.—At three colleges—Yale, Harvard and Princeton—tonight the leading speakers of the undergraduate bodies will take a triangular debate on the subject "Resolved, That all corporations engaged in interstate commerce should be compelled to take out a federal charter." Princeton will have the negative side and Harvard the affirmative at Princeton. At Cambridge Yale will have the affirmative and Harvard the negative, and at New Haven Princeton will take the affirmative side against Yale. Two years ago the last triangular debate of this kind occurred in the victory of Princeton over both Yale and Harvard.

"The Wolf."

"The Wolf" by Eugene Walter, and under the direction of Messrs. Sam S. and Leo Shubert, will be the offering at the Soisson Theatre tomorrow, Saturday, March 27, matinee and night. The piece has played a successful half year engagement in New York and has just closed one of four months in Chicago, making it possible for the Shuberts to tour the place for a short time previous to its return to those cities. "The Wolf" has to do with the Canadian Hudson Bay territory, the hero is a French Canadian, who undertakes a vendetta against a man who ruined and caused the death of his half-sister. He finds him in the person of a Scotch trader, who is scheming to get hold of Hilda, the very girl upon whom he has set his own heart. The trader has the young woman's father on his side, but the hero succeeds in carrying her off in a fight, and in the closing act kills his rival in a sensational duel. The cast is said to be one of dramatic excellence. The same big production used at the New York Lyric Theatre will be used.

Out of the Shell Comes Easter Apparel.

FULL READINESS STOCKS AT FLOOD-TIDE
SPRING-TIME APPAREL AT EVERY HAND.

Our opening demonstrated two important things to those who attended. Extreme fairness of prices and wonderful scope of every stock. It is by deeds, not words, that we have won our spurs. Our constant deviation to a single ideal. The better class of retailing has caused this establishment to be recognized as surpassing in the presenting of apparel and merchandise that is distinguished by a degree of charm and refinement that has ever characterized our offerings.

Two weeks until Easter. Whether or not you make it a point to appear in new clothes on that day, you'll want to have them ready about that time. If the dress is to be made at home, better get the materials without delay. If a suit or dress is to be bought better select it early. Have the new hat ready and the gloves, shoes, hosiery, belt, neckwear, waists and men also, will do well to come early. Here's matchless variety in suits, topcoats, vests, neckwear, shoes and gloves. We've prepared to make this our busiest April. That means more reasons for buying here than ever before.

The time for preparation is short and yet it is full time if you depend on this store to supply a new outfit, entire in perfect taste and every thing in harmony from hat to shoes.
